

PROFILE

A strong team player who maintains cutting-edge knowledge and skills seeks a challenging position that will take advantage of strong leadership, communication, and decision-making capabilities.

EXPERIENCE

Network Administrator, Bowling Green City Schools, Bowling Green, KY — 2002-present

- Administer 3800+ student accounts, 800+ faculty accounts, 1400+ workstations (94% Win, 6% Mac), 70+ laptops, 30+ servers, and an extensive variety of business and instructional software.
- Responsible for 9 sites spread throughout the city.
- Troubleshoot all technical issues district-wide.
- Design and maintain efficient techniques to support users, servers, workstations and software.
- Supervise and train college student workers to accomplish complicated tasks.
- Strong ability to communicate with people having little technical knowledge as well as those having a high degree of expertise which includes teachers, students and faculty
- Played an integral part in purchases, installations and upgrades including, but not limited to
 - Transition from a Novell network to Active Directory
 - Population of technology at 2 new sites
 - Movement of 4 sites to different locations
 - Centralization of production servers
 - Massive overhauls to software, hardware and the networking environment.

Western Student Worker, Bowling Green City Schools, Bowling Green, KY — 1997-2002

Designed database applications, web sites, and web applications. Integrated evolving technologies of both hardware and software. Maintained workstations, servers, websites, and databases. Supported faculty in the city school district.

Ropes Course Facilitator, Gasper River Retreat, Bowling Green, KY — 1995-1996

Led groups ranging from high risk children to community business employees through team building exercises using a high ropes course and low elements. Exposed participants to mentally and physically challenging situations while ensuring their safety and then helped them to process their newly learned experiences.

Self-employed Computing Consultant, Bowling Green, KY — 1990-present

Provide consulting advice and services to small businesses, organizations, and individual households. Services include integration of technology, installation, training, and support of hardware and software, and disaster data recovery.

EDUCATION

Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky — B.S., Computer Science and Engineering, 1997-2002

SKILLS

- Windows, Mac and Unix based systems
- Active Directory, Group Policy Objects
- Exchange 5.5 and 2003
- McAfee, EPO, SUS, WSUS
- MS SQL, MySQL
- IIS, Apache, Proxy 2.0, 8e6
- Veritas Backup, Doubletake, MacAdministrator
- PHP, WMI, VBS, BAT, ASP, cscript
- FrontPage, ZendStudio, Dreamweaver
- RDP, VNC, VPN, DRAC
- DNS, WINS, DHCP
- Telnet, TFTP, FTP, SFTP, SSH, SCP
- Copper and Fiber networks. Nortel routers, switches and wireless access points

REFERENCES

Lee Jordan - CIO -Supervisor
(270) 746.2320

Sharon Logsdon - Micro-Technician - Colleague
(270) 746.2322

Bill Haight - KETS Engineer
(502) 330.6382